

Newcastle150

What will our legacy be?

Newcastle150 is bringing together young people from across Newcastle to think how they can make Newcastle a greener city by 2032. Run online, across four days in May, this is your opportunity to work with other young people, develop your skills, meet established Newcastle leaders and tackle a real social challenge facing the city.

Why join Newcastle150?

- Develop and practice leadership skills such as problem solving, communication and team working
- Build connections with your peers and established leaders across Newcastle
- Earn a micro-credential that you can display on your LinkedIn profile and CV
- Additional opportunities to receive one of a limited number of free, personalized leadership coaching sessions

Dates: 20-21 and 24-25 May 2021

Times: 09.30–13.30
(All sessions are on Zoom)

"This programme has really helped me develop my confidence, before I would have shied away from group conversations. I feel super confident and cannot thank this amazing team enough."
